Kentucky's Finances.

[Grayson Gazette.]

Mr. Bradley, the republican candidate for governor, made a speech in Liederkraut Hall, Louisville, Saturday night, that was, from beginning to end, a reeking mass of misrepresentation. Indeed, it might be, and not unfairly, termed a Niagara of falsehoods. Lie after lie rolled from his tongue with cataract-like volume, rapidity and deafening roar. The fragment published in the Courier-Journal of Monday conveys about as faithfully as possible a single link of this vast and awful granite of the Mammoth Cave.

But we do not propose, at this time, to take him up lie after lie and follow him from beginning to end. The task of Sisyphus; as endless a job as the taming of the Gordian knot. But we do propose to show up his base and deliberate misrepresentations of the democracy of Kentucky in their management of the financial affairs of the state. And now to the work:

He began this line of his brazen aggregation of falsehoods by stating that at the beginning of the war Kentucky owed not a dollar of debt, had money in her treasury, and an overflowing sinking fund. What is the truth? On pages 473-79, report of 1860, we find a statement showing the amount of state debt, as follows: Original issue, $26,255,832.03, of this $1,371,832 was paid off during the year, leaving a balance of $23,884,000. Thus we learn that instead of the state not owing a dollar in the world, her indebtedness amounts to nearly five millions of dollars. Again, he asserted that the resources of the sinking fund—turnpike, railroad and slack-water navigation stock—brought in an annual revenue of something like $800,000 to the state. What is the truth? The report of the state Kentucky river navigation, which Mr. Bradley roundly denounces the democratic administration for giving away to the federal government without valuable consideration therefor—paid into the state treasury during the year 1860 the magnificent sum of $781,11. During the same period the expense of the locks and dams in repair amounted to $11,000.

One of the most important features of the state is the value of its mineral and agricultural products.

The Drummer newspaper, Lexington, has been sold to Wm. H. Peck.

When Wm. A. Wheeler died the whole Nation did not shed enough tears to moisten a postage stamp.

Yellow fever at Key West, Fla., is reported spreading, one new case and one death being reported Tuesday. Every effort is being made to stop the spread of the disease.

Mount Hugger, in New Hampshire, is to have a summer hotel. It ought to be a popular place with the young people. Kissimmee, Fla., will have to look to its laurels.—Georgetown Times.

There have been several cases of yellow fever at Key West, Fla., and a few deaths from the disease. The infected town is on an island and there has been no appearance of the fever anywhere on the mainland. A strict quarantine is being enforced and six skilled nurses have been employed at the expense of the general government and four guards to protect the property of persons removed to the hospital.

Coffee is now retailing at 30 cents per pound against about half that price a few weeks ago. If this price continues this country will pay $50,000,000 per year more for coffee than it has been paying. The cause of this rise is attributed to three things. The consumption has increased rapidly of late years, the crop of Rio is reported short and there has been a "corner" made on the market. When we consider that the people of the United States use an average of ten pounds per capita per annum, an increase of 100 per cent. in the price is no small matter.

H. Rider Haggard, the author of "She" and other stories of fiction, is an Englishman only 31 years of age. He has traveled over South Africa and his knowledge of that country is gathered at first hand. His first book was a political one and was followed by "Dawn" in 1884, "The Witch's Head" in 1885, "King Solomon's Mines" the same year, "She" last December and "Jes" last March. His last three books have won him a measure of fame and he has taken a place among the most popular of fiction writers. He lives in London and is a licensed barrister.

Col. Bradley, who has evinced such a keen desire to have somebody meet him on the stump, had an opportunity at Newcastle Tuesday when Wm. Hardin appeared by invitation of the Republican county committee and asked a division of time. The valiant Colonel positively declined to meet Gen. Hardin on any terms and spoke two and a half hours to wait out the crowd and keep Hardin from following him. This speech was not entirely successful and Hardin began speaking after 4 o'clock and spoke long enough to mob up the face of the earth with the Republican leader.

The Union Local intimates that the Paducah Standard was paid $30 by Dr. Standiford to publish one of his recent speeches. This thing of making groundless charges of this character against Dr. Standiford and his friends has already reached a point which amounts to persecution. If Senator Beck is instigating this kind of opposition he will find that it will do him more harm than good. If Dr. Standiford aspires to the Senate, he has a perfect right to run and a good many people would rather see him elected than to see Senator Beck given a third term.

HENDERSON, Ky., June 7.—Prof. E. S. Clark, Superintendent of the public school system, and Prof. Thos. Posey, principal of the high school, have had a long existing enmity toward each other, and when Prof. Clark visited the high school this morning, some unguarded remark that he had fall precipitated a quarrel, which ended in Principal Posey shooting Prof. Clark three times, inflicting serious wounds on the face, arm and shoulder. The affair occurred in the class room, in the presence of a number of pupils. Clark was taken to his home and his wounds were dressed. Posey surrendered himself to the authorities. Both men are very prominent in society here.

ROUGH AND READY.

[By Glover & Durst.]

The sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 327 lbs., with receipts of 4205 lbs. for the same period. Sales since January 1st, 53,894 lbs.

The stock of unsold tobacco is gradually increasing on our market. The position of dark types is gradually gaining in strength. The past week the following are phasing sales in many sections, and the small intended crop is beginning to appear on the hill to a considerable extent.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco:

Trash, $1.00 to 2.00.

Common to Medium Lugs, $2.25 to 3.00.

Good Lugs, $3.00 to 3.75.

Common to Medium leaf, $3.00 to 5.00.

Good to fine leaf, $4.50 to 7.00.

Leaf of extra length, $5.00 to 7.00.

Wrapping leaf, $7.00 to 12.00.

"Well, well—the world must turn upon its axis,

And all mankind turn with it, heads or tails;

And I live and die, make love and pay no taxes."

Is not every boy born to live?" A healthy life is the only one "worth living for," and that "depends on the liver." If the liver is not in good working order, pimples, blotches, skin diseases, scrofula, catarrh, and a long list of dangerous diseases result. "Make love; pay taxes," but above all get Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," and free your system of all impurities of the blood by restoring your liver to healthy action. By druggists.

BLICKINGTON, ILLS., Sept. 18, 1882. Mess. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure. Had catarrh all my life; am 45 years old. Had asthma 19 years, and a dreadful cough for five years. Have taken everything; went to the Hot Springs; I have got nothing but doctors here; I have done nothing but take a bath for 19 years. When I commenced using Hall's Catarrh Cure I was almost dead. I sent for the doctor the day I got Hall's Catarrh Cure, and I told him that I would die any way and that I would try your medicine. I was very bad. How I suffered for 9 years! I could hardly breathe at times. I saw Hall's Catarrh Cure advertised in the papers and commented the great thing it did for me. I had not had one for 19 years. I have not had one bad spell of coughing since. In breathing my head feels well and I am well. It has done me a thousand dollars worth of good. There are ten of my friends, on seeing what it had done for me, taking it, and it is helping them. I only wish that everyone who has catarrh, asthma and a bad cough could see me, so that I could tell them about it. I don't know what you have known how I have suffered. (I have been here since 1858,) and say to me that "I am so glad you found something that could cure you." Everyone says, "how much better you look." The doctors say they are glad I found Hall's Catarrh Cure as they could not cure me.

I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good Hall's Catarrh Cure has done me. You can see as much of this letter as you like, it is the whole good. Publish it to the whole world. It is all true and they should know it.
